History Definitions

Year 3	Word	Definition
Autumn (Ancient Stone Age)	Ancient	Belonged to someone a very long time ago, no longer exists. Very old
	Civilisation	Someone who lives in the town. A length of time people have been living in communities
	Century	100 years
	Era	A long time before something changes
	Chronology	Events or dates in the correct order they have happened. Like a time line
	Evidence	Facts and information to see if something is true or not.
	Source	A starting point. A person, place or thing has come from.
	Invade	To disturb or break into without warning or being asked too.
	Settle	To rest or stop what is happening
	Conquest	Something that is gotten or gained by force
	Dig	To break up or move earth with tools or hands
	Excavate	To dig to find something. Dig out what is found e.g. bones, objects.
	Archaeology	A study or learning of things that people have found and left behind, scientists. People may become archaeologists as a job
	Prehistoric	Very old, before any records of anything. Pre=before
	Hunter	Someone who hunts animals for food
	Gatherer	Someone who gathers or collects their food
	Primitive	Something that belongs to very early times

Spring (Anglo Saxons and Scots)	Monarchy	A country rules by a monarch, such as a king or queen. Rules a kingdom or empire and has all the power
	Civilisation	A length of time people have been living in communities. Someone who lives in the town
	Parliament	The parliament is a group of people who create the laws in the country.
	Democracy	When all people can take part in making the decisions to help the government
	War	Conflict/arguments between different countries with creates a war/fighting
	Peace	Freedom from war
	Settled	When something has calmed down or stopped
	Sovereignty	power
Summer (End of the Tudors (Shakespeare & Sir Walter Raleigh)	First-hand account	Sharing with others what you have done using 'I' and 'we'
	Eye-witness	A person who has seen something happen for themselves and has witnessed something happen with their own eyes.
	Primary source	A piece of information that has not been changed. It is the original
	Secondary source	A piece of information that has been changed from the primary source
	Elizabethan	A person alive during the time when Elizabeth I was alive
	Reign	The ruler
	Dynasty	When one family rules the country after a long amount of time.
	Monarch	King or queen
	Catholic	A member of the catholic church and have strict beliefs