Computing Definitions

Year 3	Word	Definition
Longitude	Responsibly	To be accountable for how you act online.
	Acceptable	Conducting the correct behaviour online.
	Unacceptable	Not displaying the correct behaviour online.
	Report	To officially inform someone else of unacceptable behaviour, action or incident.
	Content	Information that is displayed on a website.
	Contact	A connection made by two or more devices or people online.
	Blogs	A website where people upload content about something, they are interested in. e.g. fashion, gaming etc.
	Moderated	To be able to monitor a website or program for inappropriate or offensive content.
	Copyright	Where the creator of something is the only person who can make money from it with permission.
	Offensive	Information or content causing people to feel upset.
	Bullying	To purposely make someone upset or to intimidate. This is known as online-bullying and happens on social media and games.
	Secure (password)	Having a password that no one will be able to guess, usually includes capitals, numbers, letters and symbols.
	Safety features	Add-ons to a website that allow you to stay safe like parental locks, report button etc.
	Reporting	The act of telling a parent or professional about something you have seen that you don't like online.
	Downloading	Being able to take a copy of a file or picture from a website.
	Post	To upload a piece of information to a website yourself. E.g. a status to a social media website.
Autumn	Connect	To join something or people together.
	Computer network	A set of computers connected together to be able to share resources. E.g. the internet.

	Multiple services	Being able to connect serval different tasks on one device
	WWW	Stands for the world wide web. A service that allows a person to access a system of information, documents or other resources. Also known as the web or internet.
	Collaboration	Working together to create an end goal.
	Combine	To join together as a whole.
	Variety	A number of different things grouped together.
	Software	A program ran on a computer.
	Digital devices	A device that contains a computer and a way of controlling it. E.g. smartphone
	Systems	A set of smaller devices working together to create a bigger one. E.g. monitor, computer tower, keyboard and mouse create a computer system.
	Analysing	To look at something in detail to learn more about it.
	Evaluating	When you make a judgement on something looking at the pros and cons.
	Advanced features	Features on a device that make it easier to use.
	Professionally	Becomes an expert in something.
	School network	The connection of computers and devices in the school. you can also access the school network remotely from home using your login and password.
	Effects	Changing the way something looks. E.g. putting a filter on a picture.
	Text	Words input by you into a word document or online.
	Graphics	Pictures, drawings and illustrations used on an electronic device.
	Spellchecker	A feature on word that allows you to change misspelt words.
	Images	A picture that can be inserted into a document.
Spring	Databases	A collection of information that is structured in an organised way. E.g. different files.
	Record (information)	All forms of information stored on your computer.
	Advanced features	Features on a device that make it easier to use.
	Applications	Something that is downloaded to a computer or tablet such as games, educational learning.
	Branching database	To group objects using a computer program.
	Data logger	An electronic devices that records data over time about their location and environment.

Summer	Algorithms	Instructions to allow the computer to complete a task and solve a problem.
	Controlling	Having the ability to change something.
	Simulating	Practise and test running your program.
	Physical Systems	Are devices which are controlled such as, motors and sensors etc.
	Decomposing	Breaking down hard problems or parts of the computer system into smaller parts that are more manageable.
	Sequence	A process in which one thing follows another.
	Selection	The act of choosing something.
	Repetition	Repeating (doing) an action serval times.
	Variables	Something which you can change.
	Input	Information that is put into a computer.
	Output	Information stored on a computer, shown on the monitor or printed from a printer.
	Logical	Something that has been thought out and has reasoning behind it.
	Detect	To discover something.
	Screen coordinates	Is the position in which the output information is in in relation to the monitor.
	Programming commands	The instruction given by you to the computer to tell it to do something.
	Repeat commands	To repeat an instruction that you give the computer.
	Debug	The process of removing bugs and errors from your program.