Computing Definitions

Year 4	Word	Definition
Longitude	Responsibly	To be accountable for how you act online
	Acceptable	Conducting the correct behaviour online.
	Unacceptable	Not displaying the correct behaviour online.
	Report	To officially inform someone else of unacceptable behaviour.
	Content	Information that is displayed on a website.
	Contact	A connection made by two or more devices or people online.
	Blogs	A website where people upload content about something, they are interested in. e.g. fashion, gaming etc.
	Moderated	To be able to monitor a website or program for inappropriate or offensive content.
	Copyright	Where the creator of something is the only person who can make money from it with permission.
	Offensive	Information or content causing people to feel upset.
	Secure (password)	Having a password that no one will be able to guess, usually includes capitals, numbers, letters and symbols.
	Safety features	Add-ons to a website that allow you to stay safe like parental locks, report button etc.
	Reporting	The act of telling a parent or professional about something you have seen that you don't like online.
	Downloading	Being able to take a copy of a file or picture from a website.
Autumn	Computer network	A set of computers connected together to be able to share resources. E.g. the internet.
	Multiple services	Being able to connect serval different tasks on one device
	World Wide Web	A service that allows a person to access a system of information, documents or other resources. Also known as the web or internet.
	Collaboration	Working together to create an end goal.

	Digital devices	A device that contains a computer and a way of controlling it. E.g. smartphone
	Collecting	Gathering information together.
	Analysing	To look at something in detail to learn more about it.
	Evaluating	When you make a judgement on something looking at the pros and cons.
	Advanced features	Features on a device that make it easier to use.
	Search technologies	A way of searching for information. E.g. different search engines.
	Results	An outcome of something that you have searched.
	Ranked	A grading system that tells you how good something is.
	Discerning	Having good judgement on something.
	Reliability	A piece of information being trustworthy.
	Modify	To make changes to something.
	Spellchecker	A feature on word that allows you to change misspelt words.
Spring	Databases	A collection of information that is structured in an organised way. E.g. different files.
	Devise	To plan and create something.
	Construct	To be able to build something.
	Age appropriate	Something that is suitable for a particular age group.
	School network	The connection of computers and devices in the school. you can also access the school network remotely from home using your login and password.
	Reliability	A piece of information being trustworthy.
	Clipart	Simple built in pictures and symbols that you can add to documents.
	Data logger	An electronic devices that records data over time about their location and environment.
	Inaccurate	Not all correct information.
Summer	Controlling	Having the ability to change something.
	Simulating	Practise and test running your program.
	Physical Systems	Are devices which are controlled such as, motors and sensors etc.
	Decomposing	Breaking down hard problems or parts of the computer system into smaller parts that are more manageable.
	Variables	Something which you can change.
	Input	Information that is put into a computer.
	Output	Information stored on a computer, shown on the monitor or printed from a printer.

	Screen coordinates	Is the position in which the output information is in in relation to the monitor.
	Trigger	Causes a device to function.
	If then conditions	A statement when if true there's a result and if false then there's a different result.
	Sensing proximity	Being able to tell how close something is.
	Value	A number.
	Reporter operations	Collect information from a database and find the answer to it (perform a calculation).
	Procedure	A set of coded instructions that tell the computer what to do.
	Simplify	To make something easier.
	Debug	The process of removing bugs and errors from your program.