Computing Definitions

Year 6	Word	Definition
Longitude	Acceptable	Conducting the correct behaviour online.
	Unacceptable	Not displaying the correct behaviour online.
	Moderated	To be able to monitor a website or program for inappropriate or offensive content.
	Minimise risk	To reduce the chance of something happening.
	Illegal	Against the law.
	Participate	To take part in something.
	Consequences	A result or effect of a decision that has been made.
Autumn	Fade in	To increase the appearance of something gradually until it appears in full, we usually use this on PowerPoint.
	Fade out	To decrease the appearance of something gradually until it's gone completely, we usually use this on PowerPoint.
	Broadcasting	Playing sound or video to a bigger audience using a form of technology.
	IF Then Else conditions	An if statement is written then tested with a result in mind, if it comes back false then a different result happens.
	Sensing tools	Tool in scratch which can be used to monitor outcomes which then causes a reaction e.g. if the sprite touches the side, you lose a point.
	Proximity	How close something is.
	Variables	Something which you can change.
	Lists	Is a tool that can store multiple pieces of information at once.
	Boolean operators	Are words such as AND, OR, NOT, NOR, etc. these are used in conditions when it comes to programming, search engines, algorithms and formulas. For example, it can tell you if something is on or off.

	Reporter operators	Collect information from a database and find the answer to it (perform a calculation).
	Similarities	When something has features similar to something else they have some similarities.
	Sensors	A device that plugs into your computer that is able to then record data about its environment and then send that information to your computer for you to make decisions.
	Logical	Doing something according to logic (it makes the most sense).
Spring	Computer network	A set of computers connected together to be able to share resources. E.g. the internet.
	Ranked	A grading system that tells you how good something is according to criteria.
	Digital discerning	Having good judgement on something.
	Virus	A piece of code which is able to copy itself and harms computers, by destroying the system and data.
	Investigate	To carry out research and find out more information.
	Interrogate (data)	Extracting data out of a database.
Summer	Same as Autumn	